The deed states that the Schedule Property was originally acquired by Smt. B. Shashikala Bhat, wife of Vithal Bhat, through a Sale Deed registered on 13 November 1996 in the Belthangady Sub-Registrar Office, Book 1, Volume 570, Document No. 729/1996-97.

Another portion is stated to have been acquired through a Sale Deed registered on 10 December 1996 in the Belthangady Sub-Registrar Office, Book 1, Volume 573, Document No. 841/1996-97.

The deed states that Smt. B. Shashikala Bhat remained in possession and enjoyment of the Schedule Property and died without making any separate disposition of it. Her legal heirs – her husband Vithal Bhat and children Ganesh Bhat, Jyothi Bhat alias Jyothi Ramesh Shenai and Sandhya Bhat alias Sandhyasi Prabhu – succeeded to the property by inheritance.

The Schedule Property was converted for commercial/educational purposes pursuant to the Deputy Commissioner's office Application No. 140974 dated 04 February 2020, as stated in the deed.

The sellers state that they were looking for a purchaser in order to raise money required for urgent personal/life needs. They state that the purchaser was looking for premises for running EXCEL PU COLLEGE and that, upon discussion, the purchaser requested that the Schedule Property be used only for educational purposes (Educational Purpose Only).

The sellers agreed to sell the Schedule Property for Rs. 94,50,000/- because they accepted the consideration offered.

The total sale consideration is Rs. 94,50,000/- (Rupees Ninety-Four Lakh Fifty Thousand only).
